DIVISION OF CLASSIFICATION

Sec. 65. When the duties of different positions within an existing classification become so diverse that a single examination will no longer provide eligibles who are qualified for all positions in the classification, the Commission shall divide the classification into two or more classifications, and allocate the subject positions to appropriate classifications. All incumbents shall retain seniority accrued in the affected classifications.